

CONTENTS

CONTRIBUTED ARTICLES

The librarian's future	Charles Knowles Bolton	3
The empty heart	Joseph F. Daniels	4
Apprentice work in the small public library	Eliza E. Townsend	8
Centralization a needed reform in public document distribution	William L. Post	43
Some economic features of libraries	Arthur E. Bostwick	48
How to make the library of greater service to the student of school age	Samuel H. Ranch	52
Boone College Library, Wuchang, China	Mary Elizabeth Wood	54
Gleanings from the library press of 1908	Ashel G. S. Josephson	55
Copyright in its relation to libraries	George Haven Putnam	58
Industrial literature and the industrial public at the Pratt Institute Free Library	Edward F. Stevens	95
Aids to the technical and industrial worker	George Hill Evans	100
Technical department of Free Public Library of Newark, N. J.	William B. Morningstern	104
Library legislation in 1908	W. R. Eastman	106
James Hulme Canfield	Arthur E. Bostwick	143
Public libraries and libraries in schools	Contributed from various libraries	145
What the librarian may do for the high school	Mary E. Hall	154
How may the use of books and library catalogs be made a subject of study in normal schools	Ada F. Liveright	160
Honor system in college libraries	Iva M. Butlin	162
The story hour	Alice Wemott Clark	164
Cleveland Public Library's children's work	A. C. Moore	165
Library legislation in California	Helen E. Haines	167
New York Public Library children's books in foreign languages	A. C. Moore	171
Establishing relations between the children's library and other civic agencies	Clara W. Herbert	195
The public library in political theory and practice	Frederick C. Hicks	197
Book matters at home and abroad	Ernest Cushing Richardson	200
The Queens Borough Public Library	Jessie F. Hume	209
The registration of English librarians	Theodore W. Koch	217
Reading rooms and libraries for the blind	Josephine Morris Rowan	221
The experimental temptation; or, the attractive power of books versus the librarian's method	Montrose J. Moses	247
Methods of training in one library school	Mary Emogene Haseltine	253
How to make a library useful to a small town	Sophie H. Hulsiger	257
Active library membership	C. Recht	263
On classifying fiction	W. A. Borden	264
Personal contact through the catalog	John Adams Lowe	265
The old-fashioned virtues versus the ideal librarian	Helen Rex Keller	295-298
The necessity of staff meetings	Mary L. Davis and Frances L. Rathbone	299-304
Co-ordination, or method in co-operation	Charles H. Gould	335-340
The library and education	Charles W. Colby	340-345
Municipal legislative reference libraries	Samuel H. Ranch	345-350
The paper and binding of lending library books	Cedric Chivers	350-354
To make libraries more effective	W. I. Fletcher	354-355
Popular education in literature	Christian Gauss	391-394
What the school needs from the library	Isabella Austin	395-398
Louisville Free Public Library Building	W. F. Yust	398-400
Educational value of bibliographic training	Willard H. Austen	437
The use of books in prisons	A. C. Hill	431
Reminiscences of an old librarian	James L. Whitney	471

System in the library	Arthur E. Bostwick	476
Inter-library loans	W. W. Bishop	527
The library and the mechanic	Purd B. Wright	532
Outline for a working collection of public documents.	W. L. Post	538
Special collections in libraries in the United States.	Isadore G. Mudge	546
Development of special libraries	Robert H. Whitten	547
Library of the University of North Carolina	Louis R. Wilson	550

EDITORIALS:

Library work of 1908	1
American Library Institute and the A. L. A. Constitution	2
Certification of librarians in Ohio	2
Bretton Woods conference	41
Library co-ordination	41
Card repertories	42
Library statistics	42
Proposed copyright and importation of binding	42
Atlantic City meeting	93
Outside viewpoint at library meetings	93
New York State meeting	93
English criticisms of American libraries	93
A. L. A. conference at Bretton Woods	94
New copyright bill	94
Carnegie branches for the District of Columbia	94
Subscription books	94
James Hulme Canfield	141
Library conference at Brussels	141
International library conferences	141
The relation of libraries to schools	142
School libraries	142
California library legislation	142
Death of Samuel June Barrows and librarianship of Congressional Library	193
Death of Caleb B. Tillinghast	193
Mr. Hild's removal from Chicago	193
International conference at Brussels	194
New copyright provisions	194
The library field	245
Chicago library situation	245
Librarianship of Congress	246
White Mountains and A. L. A. meeting	246
Paper and book-making	246
Adoption of new A. L. A. constitution	293
Future of A. L. I.	293

Co-ordination and problems of book shelving	293
Human side of librarianship	294
Standardization of librarianship	294
Bretton Woods conference	333
A. L. A. headquarters and new constitution	333
Library co-ordination	334
Massachusetts and library commission work	334
Recent appointments and vacancies	389
Book-purchase lists	389
Book storage and stack space	390
Library week at Lake George	391
A. L. A. secretaryship	392
International library congress at Brussels	425
Plans for New York conference	425
Miss Browne's resignation from Publishing Board	525
Mr. Legler appointed to Chicago	426
Library week at Lake George	426
Interstate conference in Louisville	469
Library work with foreigners	469
Death of Miss Alice B. Kroeger	470
Tribute to Mr. James L. Whitney	470
Library co-ordination	525
Death of Adolf Growell	526

FRONTISPICES:

Jan. C. H. Gould
Feb. Boone College Library, Wuchang, China
Mar. New Haven (Ct.) Free Public Library
April. James Hulme Canfield
May. John Hay Memorial Library, Brown University, Providence, R. I.
June. Samuel Swett Green
Aug. American Library Association, Bretton Woods, N. H.
Sept. Louisville (Ky.) Free Public Library
Nov. James L. Whitney
Dec. University of North Carolina Library